300 M Street, S. W., N700
Washington, D. C. 20024
February 5, 1973

Dear Harold,

Enclosed is a sheet Bud made out so you can get his rifle registered. He told me he would pay whatever cost is involved.

My cousin's husband, Phil Kellogg, recommends as New York attorney a Sandor Frankel, who once worked with him in the U. S. Attorney's office here. Phil describes Frankel as a moderate liberal (what that means in terms of a prosecutor I don't really know). Frankel is also author of a book titled Beyond A Reasonable Doubt. He is about 30 and apparently practices by himself. He is said to have been a top notch cross-examiner when he was a prosecutor here.

Phil said to use his name when you approach him.

When you see me again, please remind me to tell you about Hugh McDonald.

May and I will be up sometime in the next few weeks to see Lil about taxes.

Best regards,

Jim